The Celebration of Worship
at Faith Community Lutheran

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.
After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine himself” (1 Corinthians 11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

Consecration Weekend
November 14 & 15, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

Jesus—One Sacrifice for All Sins

“Day after day every priest stands and performs his religious duties...which can never take away sins...but this Priest had offered for all time one sacrifice for sins... by one sacrifice He has made perfect forever those who are being made holy.” (Heb. 10:11-13.) Webster defines the word “perfect” as “being entirely without fault or defect.” Only Christ can be ascribed to as such. Perhaps a better translation would be “...He is perfecting forever those who are being made holy.” Per-FECT (rather than PER-fect) suggests a process, something that takes place over time rather than an implication of immediate excellence in all I do. I could never measure up to such a standard.

I am glad I am not left to figure this out for myself, but have been given the Holy Spirit to teach and guide me, and as long as I am open to listen to and hear Him, God will put His laws into my heart, and write them on my mind. “For even at night my heart instructs me.” (Ps. 16:7). In all situations, I can take refuge in Him. Such is very comforting and encouraging. Especially when the forgiveness of sins applies to me. How very hard and difficult this is when I realize that this same gift is offered to those who have offended or insulted me.

How do we handle this when God forgives others but we still get the consequences of their actions; when it’s their sins that will be remembered no more? We may be severely hurt in a car accident and our life changed forever in an instant; or the taking of a life so dear and precious to us far too early in life; or the victim in a business deal gone sour. Forgiveness can be a very difficult pill to swallow. It is sometimes painful to realize that Christ died for them just the same as he did for us.

For me the difference often lies in my focus. Upon which do I choose? The situation or Jesus? If one wants to plow a straight line in a field, he doesn’t look at the ground but at a fixed point in the distance. Peter didn’t begin to sink because of the waves, but when he focused on the waves instead of Jesus. Jesus’ forgiveness of our sins invites us to forgive those who have sinned against us.

“Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.” -Heb. 10:23-24.
—Jody McClurkin

“Go therefore and make disciples of all nations...” -Matthew 28:19

Thank You, Pastor Michael & Suzanne O'Grady!

This is Pastor Michael O'Grady's last weekend with us at Faith, as he and Suzanne are moving to Ireland where Michael has relatives.
 We deeply appreciate Pastor Michael's ministry in our midst, and we pray for God's richest blessings as they journey to their new home.

Welcome Center

We are "experimenting" with a new idea. We currently have a "mock-up" of a welcome center in the Narthex. The Welcome Center will benefit Faith in two ways:

First, it will be a place where we can welcome our guests, put out "sign-ups," distribute information and literature, gather messages, plus so much more!

Secondly, it will provide additional office/work space for staff. As Faith has grown, our staff has grown and work space is at a premium.

Please stop by and let us know what you think! If you are a first-time visitor, please let one of our hosts know! We would love to tell you about our Faith Community!

Fall Cleaning

Mike Brockman, Property Chair, and Bob Thoman, Property Director, have scheduled a "Fall Cleaning Day" on Saturday, November 21st, 2009, from 8:30 AM to 12:00 noon.
